The AirTouch F20 cushion is made of UltraSoft memory foam for a light, breathable fit and seal. A simple wipe down keeps the cushion clean, and regular replacement keeps it maintenance-free.

Changing the face of comfort

The AirTouch F20's UltraSoft memory foam cushion adapts to the unique contours of your face, creating a seal that is designed to work across a range of therapy pressures. The AirTouch F20 has also proven to work for nearly everyone who tried it – fitting 98% of patients in a recent study.²
