Introducing the world's first CapFit™ headgear

Starting anything new is a crucial time and learning to adjust to therapy is essential. With the unique design of F&P Evora, getting started with your mask is as easy as putting on a cap.

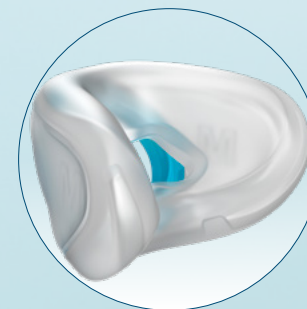

Freedom to move

The unique compact seal and flexible breathing tube keep the mask comfortably in place.

Minimal

With 64% less headgear contact on your face¹, the soft-knit contoured headgear delivers comfortable support.

Comfortably compact

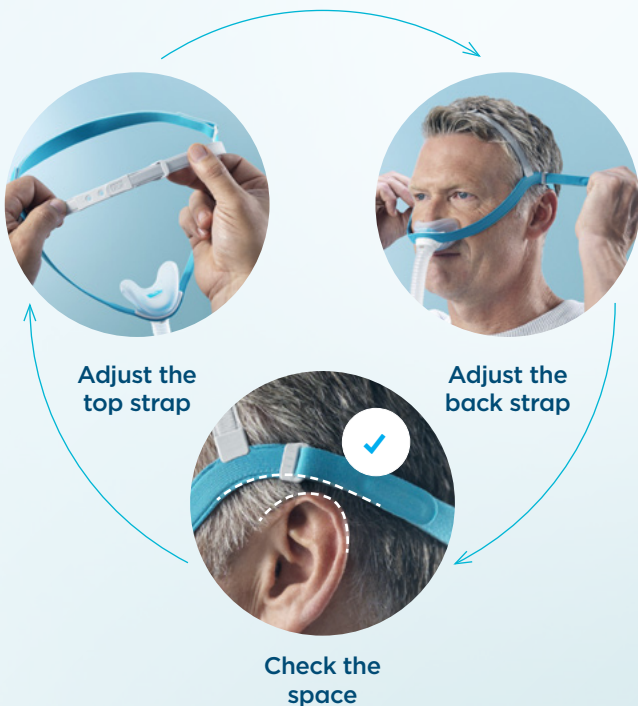

Sits comfortably under your nose to create a gentle fit.

Sleep quietly

Designed with exhaust holes that minimize noise and draft.
